NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—(By Associated Press.)—The exact cause of the explosion, which in the twinkling of an eye yesterday night, transformed Wall street, lower end, from a scene of bustling activity to one of dreadful carnage, remains tonight a mystery.

Chief Flynn, chief of the bureau of investigation of the United States department of justice and fire commissioner of the city, who were in charge of the investigation, said that the explosion was caused by a time bomb loaded with high explosive and re-inforced with metal shrapnel. The bomb was placed in the wagon by a person who was identified by a blacksmith.

WHAT PRESS
AGENTS SAYWALLACE REID SHOWS ALL THE LATEST CABARET STEPS, ALSO REAL
BUSINESS ABILITY, AT EMPRESS

Paramount Star is Happily Cast in "The Dancin' Fool." Taken from Saturday Evening Post Story, Which Will Be Screened Next Monday

Wallace Reid in a new screen comedy "The Dancin' Fool," will be the attraction for next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Empress and the more announcements about the signal for crowded houses, for Wallace is a prima favorite in Edmonton. The playlet is said to present the star in a role that is unusual and that ideally suits Mr. Reid's boyish features.

Wallace is a New York country town to town for the little town in the big business. The latter is a hidden work conservative, with the result that the profits have been well detailed off into space. Wallace, known as "Vee," shows his wit and the modern innovations he introduces and is in a continual row with him. In the meantime "Vee" meets June

Budd, dancer in a cabaret in which he happens to drift. The discovery that "Vee" is a crackpot dancer follows in his becoming her partner at "The Dancin' Fool," a high-class cabaret. There he works by day at six o'clock, a week, in the big factory, and by night for two hundred in the cabaret. But gradually "Vee" becomes a sensation on business, to the dismay of June and goes on the road for his own with a big advertising scheme. June is marvellously successful. He returns in time to rescue the big business and to claim June for his own. Bob Daniels plays the role of June, and Raymond Hutton, Tully Marshall, and Lillian Leighton are also in the cast. The picture was adapted from a popular story, which ran in the Saturday Evening Post. It is a Paramount Aircraft production.

BIG UNDERWORLD SCENES FOR NEW ELSIE JANIS PLAY, WHICH COMES TO REGENT NEXT MONDAY

"The Imp," Booked for One Solid Week, Is a Crook Play, Ray with Humor, Dramatic Situations, and Surprises

When Elsie Janis's new picture "The Imp," opens at the Regent next Monday for a six-day engagement, one of the many exciting features will be the unusual underworld scenes. The plot of the story carries Mrs. Janis and her leading man, Joe King, to almost every type and variety of underworld much trouble for the careful mother in which he directed these particular scenes.

"The Imp" is a picture of surprises and not the least of them are the scenes in the opium joint. It was built at an enormous expense, especially for the production, and it is one of the largest sets ever put together in any studio. Altogether the set covers two floors.

President Myron Skolnick, who dominated by the idea that what realism is at stake, no expense, energy or effort shall be given consideration. It lends itself to picturesque treatment and lighting, and many beautiful and thrilling scenes were built up in it.

"The Imp" originally was written by Miss Janis and Edmund Goulding and adapted to the screen by M. Goulding. It is a "crook" story, replete with humor and dramatic situations.

CATTLE RUSTLERS WERE GIVEN
PERSISTENT BATTLE BY LONE STAR RANGERS IN TEXAS STATE

William Farnum Appears as Member of Famous Mounted Force in Stirring Film Drama, Which Will Be Screened at the Monarch Next Week

While men make war, men must die, and one of the staples of the fighting man is beef. Besides the men who "make" the beef, there are a few men who have helped make beef raising possible, especially in Texas, and these men are the Texas Rangers.

Along in the '70s and '80s cattle men of the border would have found cattle raising impossible but for the Rangers, because of the depredations of cattle-thieves, Mexican and American, who drove off herds of cattle and sold them east and north. In one instance a gang took possession of an entire town.

By their persistent and unrelenting pursuit of these rustlers, taking them dead or alive, the Texas Rangers have kept the cattle business on the map of the Texas border.

The story of these cowboys of the cattle men—the Rangers—in making history, as well as some of the tricks of the cattle rustler, is graphically depicted in the photoplay, "The Lone Star Ranger," a William Fox film version of the famous Zane Grey novel.

At the scene Ranger, the fearless defender of the right and the impetuous William Farnum appears at the Monarch Theatre next Monday for 5 days.

MISS CLAYTON AT EMPRESS
IN FINE DRAMA

"Young Mrs. Winthrop" Shows the Troubles of a Pair of Newly-Weds

Miss Clayton's latest Paramount Aircraft picture, "Young Mrs. Winthrop," will be the attraction at the Empress theatre next Monday, Friday and Saturday. It is an extended story of young married life, telling of the entanglement of a youthful husband and wife, and their reconciliation under dramatic circumstances. Bronson Howard wrote the play from which it was adapted.

Miss Clayton has the role of pleasure-loving Constance Winthrop, while Harrison Ford is her husband, immersed in business. Their varying interests lead them apart, the only connecting link being their five-year-old child. Her husband becomes involved in an innocent, but shady-looking affair with a Mrs. Danbury who is bent upon revenge against herself upon Constance. The climax of the picture is the death of those which at first separates them still further, but later brings them together, through the actions of a lawyer-friend of both.

J. M. Dumont, Corinne Ogilvie, Raymond Hutton and Winifred Greenwood, are included in the excellent cast which Paramount has provided for Miss Clayton and Mr. Ford.

Not many in the crowd who would have had to take the chance that Miss Minter had taken.

On Thursday and Friday the Hollywood Bay annual fashion show will also take place at the Allen.

DESPITE JAZZ,
STAR SINGERS
MAKE BIG HIT

Girls in "Hello, Alexander" Hope to Eclipse the Minstrels' Record

One of the most surprising incidents of the current theatrical season is the unusual hit scored by the Alvin Vinton Holt and Lillian Leighton in Melvyn and Heath's musical extravaganza, "Hello, Alexander," coming to the Empress for three days starting next Monday.

For two years, explain these young ladies, they have been fighting to preserve their musical quality. The fact that "Hello, Alexander" is a musical of jazz did not daunt these young ladies nor deter them from carrying out their plans to interpret several operatic numbers. Their friends tried to dissuade them, leading to some strange scenes just as much out of place as a business suit at a formal dinner. But, like the celebrated song writer, they "took a chance" and won.

The Misses Holt and Leighton, have had an interesting career. Miss Leighton, claims that three years of theatrical experience. In that period of time she has risen from obscurity to a commanding position in her chosen profession. Her association with Miss Holt began almost at the start of her career. Miss Holt has been on the stage for nine years, during which time she has appeared in character roles in a number of productions. As she has recently expressed themselves, the Misses Holt and Leighton intend to continue their stage partnership in the hope that they will capture the world's record now held by Melvyn and Heath—Forty-eight acts in one evening.

They never intend to enter the domain of jazz, but have had hopes of being paid playing the principal roles in a romantic operetta—a hope that is now soon realized, according to a recent announcement by the Misses.

SCREEN VERSION
POPULAR NOVEL
AT THE ALLEN

"Anne of Green Gables" and the Hudson's Bay Fashion Show Next Week

It developed that one reason for Mary Miles Minter coming to Edmonton, Mass., to film the exterior for her first feature picture, "Anne of Green Gables," which will be shown at the Allen next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, was because the "location scout" of the company had found there what is said to be almost a duplicate of the house described in "Anne" books, which were written by L. M. Montgomery.

This is the Pritchard house, one of the oldest landmarks in New England. It was built soon after the landing of the Mayflower in 1620. It weathered the many Indian wars and sturdy in the quiet little New England town.

Miss Minter and her company report having found the unusual little town very interesting and charming because of the architecture and its rural beauty. The inhabitants of Pritchard, on the other hand, were given a thrill by the visit soon after the landing of the Mayflower in 1620. It weathered the many Indian wars and sturdy in the quiet little New England town.

In this "Anne" (Miss Minter) becomes "Anne" the shy maid. The operations gathered on a large and weathered building of solid oak and flower-bedded barge as it drifted down the stream. When it had floated out of camera range and "Anne" had been carried to the very edge of the steep waterfall the crowd gathered in terror, fearing that Miss Minter would be dashed to death below. But the scene had been timed to the minute and the crowd rewarded with cheers and applause. There were

FIRE FIGHTERS GET TWO CALLS OUT ON FRIDAY

Guardians of The City Make Fast
Runs, Successfully "Killing"
The Fire

Fire at the Capital City Box factory and the Mutual block on Friday were successfully quelled by the city fire department, and what might have turned into a heavy blaze among the sides of lumber and debris of wood working operations at the box factory, taken in conjunction with the extreme dryness of the material at the present time, was promptly dealt with.

The call to the factory was rung in at 5:25 p.m. and was responded to by the combination wagon from number five fire hall, the men on arrival finding that a dump made of mill refuse was burning. This material and other matter from the factory being used in connection with a ravine nearby, and owing to the same having come in contact with the wood refuse the mass was smoldering when the brigade arrived.

The fire was discovered under the pile and it was necessary to pump a large quantity of water under the debris, making a kind of tunnel, until the liquid reached the seat of the trouble, which finally rectified the matter.

The brigade returned to the fire hall again at 4:45 p.m. The alarm was received at 5:25 and was responded to by the detachment from No. 1 fire hall, the fire being at the Mutual block on 27th street, the latter apparatus, pump and combination.

wagon under Deputy Chief Murray making a fast run down on Friday. It was found that the fire was in the rubbish about which reached the base from the upper stories, and being a wooden box-shaped affair it made a position for the fire and caused the fire to blaze furiously.

Incidently some inflammable material had been introduced into the plant, as there is a proper receptacle for the refuse which are lowered down by means of a cable to the ground.

This fire was also quickly extinguished and the brigade was back in quarters again at 5:44 p.m.

TWO BICYCLES ARE SMASHED BY AUTOS IN CITY ON FRIDAY

J. Huesteg of 1632-16th street, reported to the city police headquarters that on Friday morning, while his car was standing opposite the Yale cafe on 101st avenue, that an auto bearing the number 2157, ran over the wheel of the cycle and smashed it. The automobile owner did not stop to inquire.

The second complaint reached the police in the afternoon, when Duncan Gault of 1321-13th street, reported that at 5:30 p.m. his machine had been damaged by a car driven by Harry Fox, of the Twin City Taxi company, the latter having backed the car up on the two wheeler and damaged it, at the corner of 101st avenue and 122nd street.

BODY DISCOVERED OUTSIDE THE CITY NOW IDENTIFIED

From Inspector Piser, of the Alberta provincial police headquarters, it is learned that the body of the man who was found dead on Robert Cleland's farm, west of the city, near the country club, is that of Hans Benrich, an Austrian, 32 years of age, who deceased was married and has a wife in Austria, but is not known to have possessed any relatives in Canada.

The body was identified by Commandant Hristow, of the Salvation Army, with whom the deceased had at times sheltered, being a casual worker around the city.

The matter is in the hands of the Alberta provincial police, the body being at the undertaking parlors of Howard & McRae. It was desired by the coroner that an inquest was unnecessary.

SEEKS IDENTITY OF RETURNED MEN WHO AIDED TORONTONIAN

J. C. Ross, of 89 Avenue Road, Toronto, is sending a circular broad cast asking for the identity of two returned men, both amputation sufferers, who gave him aid when he was knocked down by an automobile at the corner of Carlton and Mutual streets, Toronto, June 18th, 1919.

Ross explains that following the accident, both returned boys gave their addresses on a slip of paper, but in his semi-conscious state as a result of an accident, this was lost. After recovery, Ross applied for compensation from the automobile owner, who caused his injury, but this was not allowed on account of Ross not having sufficient evidence. The two returned men could provide this and Ross would like their assistance.

USED ROBIN HOOD FLOUR

Mr. A. J. Brown, manager of the Robin Hood Mills here, returned from attending the Stargate exhibition, says that the two ladies taking first and second prizes in bread used Robin Hood Flour. The winner of first prize for best bread was Mrs. James McLeod, of Kipling, and second prize winner was Mrs. Pearl Lowry, of Saskatoon.

Reasons For NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

Why it is the cheapest and Best form of Advertising

Civilization is based on profitable industry.

The profits of industry depend on trade.

Trade depends on publicity for its success.

Other things being equal, it is admitted that the dealer who adopts the best means of publicity and pushes it with greatest skill and determination, wins in the race for business.

Many and various ways and means are used for bringing seller and buyer together. No doubt personal canvass on the part of the seller, or his agent, the most effective. But, because of its cost, this system can only be followed when quantity sales are made. In most cases the effort of the seller must be to interest the buyer by less expensive means; that is, by one form or another of advertising.

To discuss the merits of newspaper advertising: The first point in favor of the newspaper—in which it differs from all other advertising mediums or means—is that the reader pays for it. Having paid for his newspaper, the purchaser or subscriber naturally wishes to get value by reading it. It is not thrown aside without a glance as any other form of printed advertising generally is. Having been sufficiently interested in the newspaper to pay for it, the purchaser is naturally impressed by what he sees in its columns.

The pioneers in the departmental store business were the first to see and seize on the possibilities of the newspaper as a medium of publicity. Their marvellous success has established the value of newspaper advertising beyond argument.

Of all accepted means of business advertising, the newspaper gives the widest publicity for the least money. The subscriber is not the only reader of his newspaper. The members of his family, his visitors and neighbors, all read the newspaper. It is safe to say that the number of readers of a reputable newspaper is twice or three times that of its subscribers. In thousands of cases, the newspaper is the Seller and buyer must come together or they cannot deal.

Business publicity—or advertising—is the means by which they are brought together.

link between its readers and the world at large. It fills a place in the family and neighborhood life that nothing else does or can. The newspaper is the friend and spokesman of its readers; therefore announcements in its columns are noted with a favorable interest that no other means of publicity receives.

The Bulletin, in its Morning, Evening and Semi-Weekly editions, has a range of circulation covering the city of Edmonton and Central and Northern Alberta as no other publication does. Its morning edition reaches the business men of the city and surrounding towns, its evening edition reaches the man of evening leisure, and its Semi-Weekly is more largely read in the rural sections than any other publication of any kind.

Increased cost of paper and labor compels The Bulletin to increase its charges for advertising over the scale that has hitherto prevailed. But, even at increased prices, it gives better value for money spent than any other medium of publicity available to the business interests of Edmonton or of Central and Northern Alberta generally.

The Bulletin has a record of public service that gives it a standing equalled by few of the newspapers of Canada. It publishes the only morning edition north of Calgary or west of Saskatoon, and the only actual semi-weekly edition in Alberta. Its evening edition circulates throughout the city and along the railway lines having out-going evening—and no morning—trains.

Everybody reads The Bulletin. Its advertising columns are the best medium of publicity available to the business men of Edmonton.

Advertise your city by advertising your business.

JAMES E. REILLY RESIGNS FROM UTILITIES BOARD

Popular Secretary of Provincial Board Resigns to Accept a
New Position

Mr. J. E. Reilly, secretary of the board of public utility commissioners since the board was created in October, 1918, has resigned to accept an important position with the Gregory Tire and Rubber Co. of Vancouver. He will make his headquarters in Edmonton, however, and will represent the firm in Alberta.

Mr. Reilly is very enthusiastic over the prospects of this company, which was organized last year for the purpose of establishing in Vancouver a large rubber-tire manufacturing plant and developing a new process invented by the president, Mr. Gregory. This new process is a novel invention, but has already been tested and is expected to greatly reduce the cost of production and give greater durability. It was in his official capacity as secretary of the board of utility commissioners that this project was first brought to the attention of Mr. Reilly. After a thorough investigation, the company obtained the consent of the board to place their claim before the public of Alberta. Mr. Reilly stated that the company will be manufacturing their product within sixty days. It is very satisfactory to Mr. Reilly's friends that the new position is not necessary his removal from Edmonton, but it is a pity that he cannot stay in Alberta. For twenty years, now he has lived in Alberta, and "Jimmy Reilly," as he is known, the province over has been in very close association with every movement of political or economic moment to the citizens of the province ever since he came. His name among the personal friends of all the leading politicians that have figured in the life of Alberta.

Of late, his inimitable imitations of the speeches of some of Alberta's foremost citizens have been a source of amusement, but more popular, but Calgary or Edmonton, east or west, it is a pity that in Alberta very few gatherings of representative men at which Mr. Reilly was not a guest.

The Crop Is Safe

This (Friday) is September 17th. The leaves of the forest are only beginning to change color. The thermometer of the meteorological office has touched frost, but has not yet gone below the frost line. Of course there has been some frost in various localities, but the color of the leaves at this time in the season is the best that has been seen in the immediate Edmonton district at any rate. Harvest is practically over. They may be green to cut, but practically no grain crop. Everything is ripe and in good condition. Harvest weather has been ideal. This means that the crop has been taken off at a minimum of expense; of course, saving the best wheat. In the Edmonton district the yield will compare favorably with that of 1919, and the sample is even better.

News of the District

LEDDUC.
Bishop Hudak arrived on Saturday afternoon to consecrate the new Russian church at Spruells on Sunday. He was escorted from the railway to the church by a bodyguard of his congregation, dressed in native costume.
Mr. Murray, teller-accountant of the Union bank, has been transferred to Edmonton. Mr. R. H. Brown, of Edmonton, takes up his position here.
James Knepp, son of W. O. Knepp, who sustained concussion of the brain in a fall from a horse about three weeks ago, has been undergoing treatment in the General Hospital, Edmonton, and is making satisfactory progress towards recovery.
The high taxes in the town are giving an impetus to new ideas. One of these is to sell the Alexandra park in order to lighten the burden of taxation. The scheme, however, is meeting with some opposition and many believe that the matter lies in to take no notice of the promoters.
The weather still continues to be ideal for harvesting and satisfactory results are being made in all parts of the district. The farmers now generally do their shipping during the night, when main street, which looks like Jasper avenue, with innumerable automobiles. A remarkable transition from a dozen years ago, when jakes of corn would be seen lined up outside the stores.—Leddu, Sept. 14th.

ASHMONT.

ASHMONT.
Rev. J. K. Smith, accompanied by Prof. Smith and Cook from Toronto University, and Rev. Mr. Pike of Edmonton, spent a night in town last week.
Mrs. C. B. Waagen of Calgary, vice-president and honorary secretary of the Alberta Red Cross, spent a day in the several exhibits in this town, giving a most excellent address on Red Cross and Hospital work. A branch was organized and the matter of a local hospital or nurse's service will be one of the first considerations of the local branch.
This community is badly in need of a good road. There has been practically no work done towards opening up the country either north, south or east of the town. So far we have not heard of any government work done on roads leading towards Ashmont and as we are without a representative in the provincial legislature there does not seem to be much chance of any help from that source.

Rev. H. B. Steinhilber, R.A., of Battle Lake, conducted service here last Sunday to a representative and appreciative audience. Mr. Steinhilber is an excellent singer as well as a good speaker, and the people will be glad to welcome him again. He has kindly promised to give another service in two weeks.
Mr. Walter Campbell is shipping several cars of cattle to Edmonton this week.—September 9th.

With the Humorists

His Improved Condition.
"How's your husband getting along Mrs. Roberts?"
"Well, sometimes he's better and sometimes he's worse, but from the way he grows on 'taken on when he's worse. I think he's better when he's worse."

For Sale.
One car with piston rings; two rear wheels; one front spring; has no fenders, seat or tank; burns lots of gas; hard to start; carburetor busted half way through; engine missing; hits on wheels; the year old, four cylinder; has shock absorbers and everything; radiator broken; no oil; leak; differential dry, can hear it squeak; tire spokes missing; front wheel bent; blew out; isn't worth a cent; got lots of speed, will run like the deuce; burns either gas or kerosene; tires all off; been run on the rim. A darned good one for the shape it's in.

Know Their Man.
A traveling salesman tells of a unique correspondence between a Chicagoan and his representative in South Dakota.
"Showing hard in Deadwood. Snow piled up. Good here for a week. Wire funds and instructions." To this the manager of the Chicago establishment wired as follows: "Telegram received. Hundred telegraphed you. Snow no time. Play poker, and remit winnings to house."

Zip-Zap.
A medical officer once chided upon a negro acquaintance of civil life one day in France.
"How do you like the army, Mosé?" he asked.
"Well right so far, cap'n," replied the negro, "but ah don't know how I'm going to like it when dem German shoots at me."
"Don't worry about that," replied the officer. "All you have to do is to stay." And he demonstrated.
The next time the two met the negro "humped."
"What's the matter with you, Mosé?" asked the officer.
"I ain't sure, cap'n, but ah think ah must have been stung" bout de time ah cutha been stung."—American Legion Weekly.

Without Recollection.
According to the "First Review" a man presented himself for enlistment who said that his mother was an American who had married a Frenchman in Italy. He said further that he was born on a ship during the Spanish war while she was lying in the English Channel, that his parents having died in Sweden when he was five, he was adopted by a German who brought him up in the United States. The man who adopted him was not a naturalized citizen.
"Would you class him as a man without a country?" someone asked the recruiting officer.
"Thunder, no!" was the reply. "I'd class him as a League of Nations."

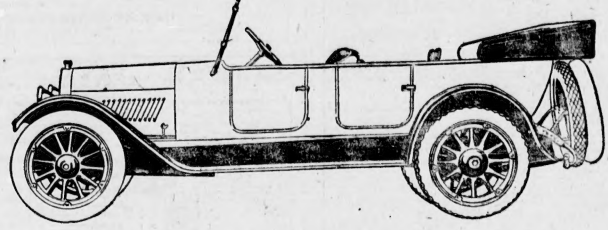

Not Funny.
"You have selected him? Are you sure he is the sort of a man you want for a husband?"
"Yes, mother. The sort of a man I want for a husband is the one I can get."

Not a Chance.
"Dubleigh says he doesn't know whether to marry a beautiful girl or a sensible girl."
"He needn't worry. A beautiful girl could do better and a sensible girl will know better."—Horn Transcript.

Doubt That.
The stern father put on his sternest look as his crying son entered his presence.
"Where were you last night, Char?" he demanded.
"Let me think—" began the young man.
"I will help you to think," observed the father. "You were at the Purple Restaurant, acting host to a party of friends whose girls, is not that about?"
"Well," said the young man seeing that evasion was useless, "I was."
His father cast his eye up to the ceiling in mute horrified appeal.
"Suppose this should come to the ears of your mother?" he exclaimed.
"What do you suppose she would say?"
"Don't worry about that, dad," replied his son. "She knows all about it. She was sitting at the next table."—Answers.

Expense Letters.
First Father: "My daughter's letter always send me to the dictionary."
Second Father: "That's nothing. My daughter's always send me to the bank."—Cricket.
